DETAILED ACTION

- 1) Claims 1-4 and 6-20 are presented for examination.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

- 2) An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Timothy Bliss on 12/19/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Please cancel claims 19-20.

Referring to claim 1, line 2, please change "operation of a product" to read --operation of a semiconductor product--.

Allowable Subject Matter

- 3) Claims 1-4 and 6-18 are allowed.

Referring to claim 1, Allen, alone or in combination with the prior art of record, does not explicitly teach a method for preventing contamination during a manufacturing operation of a semiconductor product comprising comparing a product contributive attribute and an operation acceptance attribute prior to performing an operation on a product, wherein the operation acceptance attribute identifies contaminants unacceptable to the operation, and suspending the operation if the product and operation are not compatible, in combination with the remaining elements or features of the claimed invention

Art Unit: 2125

Referring to claims 12 and 14, Allen, alone or in combination with the prior art of record, does not explicitly teach a method for preventing contamination during a substrate manufacturing operation comprising determining if a substrate routing attribute associated with the substrate corresponds to an operation contributive element associated with the operation, wherein the substrate routing attribute indicates a material not acceptable to the substrate, wherein the operation contributive attribute indicates a material used in the operation, and utilizing the correspondence to determine if the operation should be suspended, in combination with the remaining elements or features of the claimed invention.

Referring to all other claims, the claims are dependent on the allowable claims above, and are therefore also allowable.

Conclusion

4) Although not utilized in previous office actions, Examiner wishes to add related art to the record. This art has been noted on the attached PTO-892.
